Armed robbers sought

By AMANDA WILSON
ANP Staff Writer

An armed robbery was committed at a Romulus service station located near the 31000 block of Van Born Road last week.

Shortly after 4 p.m. last Wednesday, two men entered the station and made a purchase. They exited, then returned a short-time later, according to police.

Upon re-entering the store, one of the two suspects dropped a pop bottle on the floor where it shattered, police said. The cashier, a 27-year-old Romulus resident, walked to the other side of the counter to tell the men to not worry about the shattered glass and that he intended to clean up the mess.

At that time, one of the two suspects came up behind the cashier, placed a hand on his shoulder and a what he believes was a gun in his back, according to police. One of the suspects grabbed the cashier by the hair, led him back to the cash register where he was told to remove the money, police said.

He was then told to sit on the floor and not move.

At the same time, a second attendant was forced to the floor in the storage room by the second suspect. He was also told to not move.

The robbers then fled the station with a minimal amount of cash, police said. No one was injured.

The first suspect is described as a black male about 25 years old. He is approximately five-foot, 11-inches in height and was described as very thin. At the time of the robbery, he was wearing a light brown jacket with a hood, and blue jeans. He was armed with a chrome-color revolver.

The second suspect was described as a black male of about the same age.

Nationwide surveys to determine need for small version of Cobo Hall in Romulus

By AMANDA WILSON
ANP Staff Writer

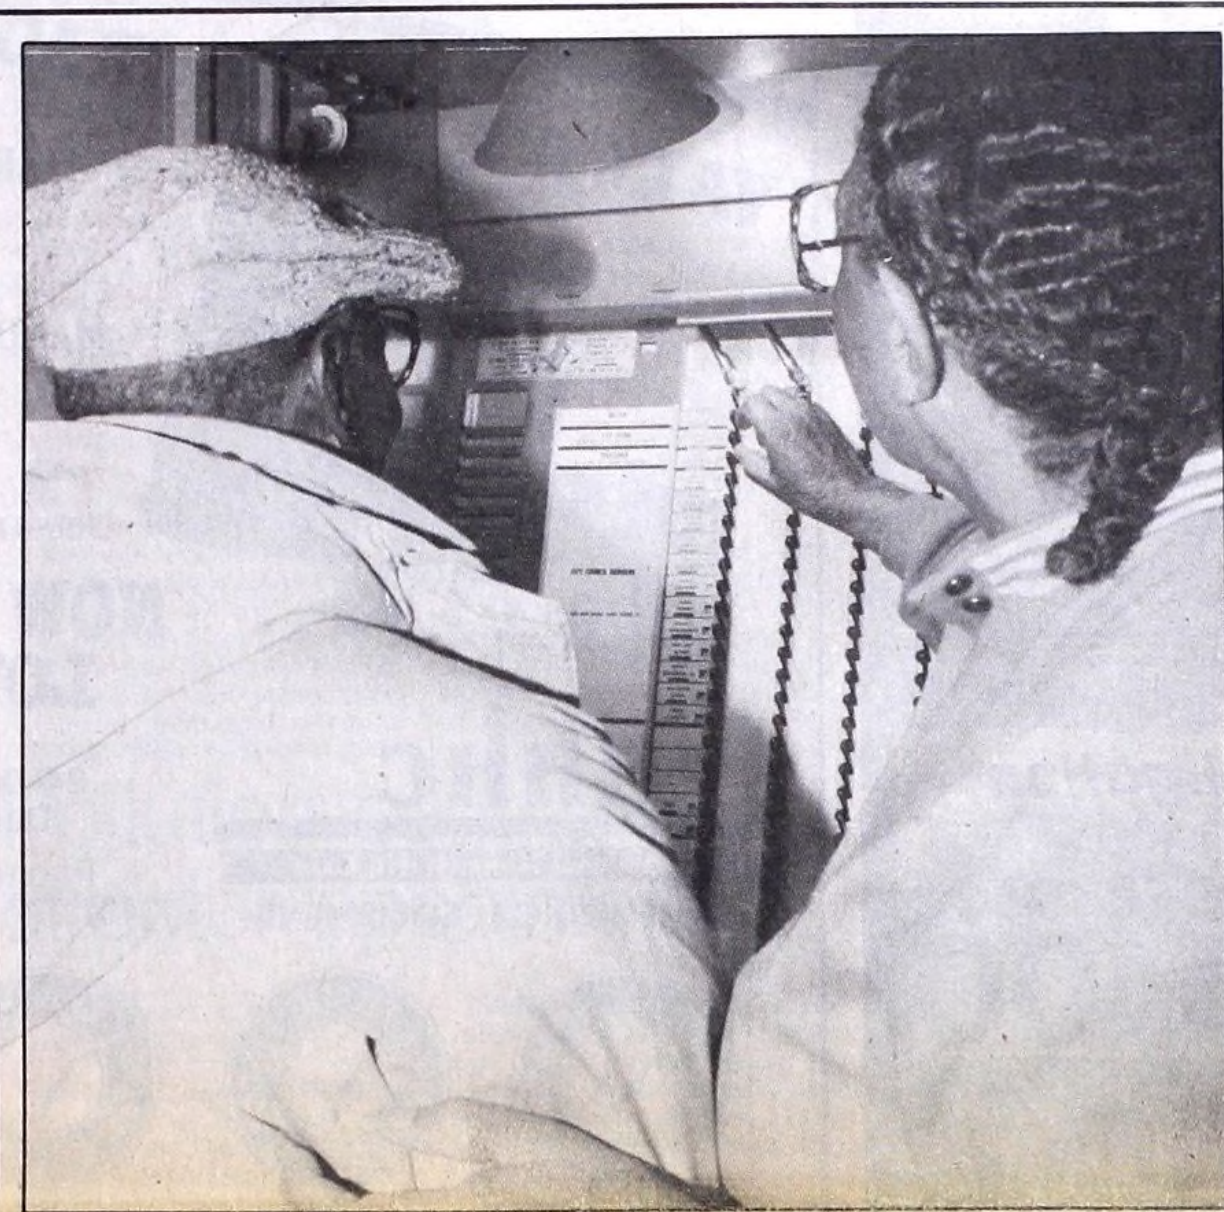

City officials will soon be seeing the results of a study conducted to determine the feasibility of making Romulus home to a smaller version of Cobo Hall.

If agreed upon by local businesses, city officials and developers, the new Exposition/Conference Center, which could hold up to 15,000 patrons, may be housed in the city within the next few years, according to Dennis Oakes, director of community development for Romulus.

The need for such a center was conceived in a discussion between city officials and hotel owners within the past two years, said Oakes.

"We were trying to think of a way to market the demand for the 3,200 hotel rooms in the city and thought this may be a good idea," Oakes said. "Now, a survey of local businesses is being conducted to decide whether or not there is a sufficient demand for such a facility."

The approximate $35,000 feasibility test survey is being

Residential re-inspections continue throughout city

By AMANDA WILSON
ANP Staff Writer

The re-inspection of Romulus homes to update city records is going smoothly and on-schedule, according to Matthew Raftary, director of the department of assessment.

In a report to the city council Monday, Raftary said that home inspection is expected to be complete within the next two months. The only areas incomplete are in the rural section on the western side of Wayne Road, he said.

Romulus Mayor Beverly McAnally said that many residents were worried that this re-inspection could cause a tax increase. "But they will not raise if you've been honest in telling us about any new construction and have paid your fair share in the past," she said.

The re-inspection will update city records of residential property value. The last time such an inspection was conducted was 1978, when re-measuring of an individual structure (such as a porch or garage) was not required, according to Raftary.

"The last time anything like we're doing now was conducted

Voters cash in on Banks

By AMANDA WILSON
ANP Staff Writer

Romulus voters returned six incumbents to the Romulus City Council and chose Mary Ann Banks as mayor pro tem in balloting Tuesday.

Although all totals were still unofficial at press time, Banks won the seat back with a total of 1,716 votes out of the 2,669 cast at the ballots.

Banks served as mayor pro tem from 1977 to 1989 at which time she elected not to seek office.

Running second with a total of 1,489 votes was incumbent Randolph Gear. Jimmie Raspberry took third with 1,380; Noah P. Bergeron took fourth with 1,371; William Wadsworth Jr. took fifth with 1,319; Ellis Pennington took sixth with 1,216 and Russell Lambert took the seventh and final seat with a total of 1,173 votes.

Mayor Beverly McAnally ran unopposed in the election and re-captured the helm which she has held for eight years with a total of 1,918 votes.

City Clerk Linda Choate and Treasurer James Napiorkowski also ran unopposed. The clerk re-captured her seat with a total of 1,753 votes while Napiorkowski won again with 1,635 votes.

Because the proposal to change the terms of office for elected officials to four years was also rejected by voters, the incumbents will again be serving two-year terms.

Ballot Proposals B and C which asked voters to approve bond issues for a total of 1.51 mills for road repair and storm drain improvement were also defeated by the voters both by a margin of close to 500 votes.

For the election this year, 12 candidates vied for the seven council seats. Seeking office were incumbents Randolph Gear, Noah P. Bergeron, Fred Junior Block, Russell Lambert, Ellis Pennington, Jimmie Raspberry and William Wadsworth Jr., and contestants Mary Collins, Pauline Calhoun, Judith Frederick, Doreen Seibert and Mary Ann Banks.

Although there are 13,500 registered voters in the city of Romulus, the small turn out was pretty much what was expected, according to City Clerk Linda Choate.

"The weather may have played a factor in such a low turn-out but really we didn't expect that more than 3,000 people would show up to vote," she said.

Romulus resident stabbed in stomach

By AMANDA WILSON
ANP Staff Writer

A 27-year-old Romulus resident was stabbed in the stomach last week as the result of a dispute with an acquaintance.

Jeffrey M. Jones, 31 of Romulus, was arrested in connection with the stabbing. He was charged with assault with intent to do great bodily harm, police said.

The incident occurred on North Alexander Street between Van Born and Beverly roads in Romulus. Police said the two had experienced a confrontation earlier that same day regarding a minimal amount of money owed from the victim to Jones.

Jones was arraigned Oct. 31 in the 34th District Court before Judge William Szlinis. A preliminary examination was set for Nov. 6 at 9 a.m. in the 34th District Court.

ANNAPOLIS WOMEN'S SERVICES

"They Had Everything To Make His First Days Special. That's Why I Chose Annapolis."

"Having my baby was a wonderful experience, and having my baby at Annapolis made it even better. They provided comprehensive, on-going prenatal care classes for my husband and me. And when the time came, I had my baby in their home-like birthing room, where both labor and delivery took place. And the doctors and the nurses, well, everyone was just wonderful. Having my baby at Annapolis made a special event even more special."

Annapolis Hospital is part of the Oakwood health care system. One of the largest health care systems in Michigan, with six hospitals, more than 30 local health care and specialty centers and more than 1,000 physicians.

Services preserved in township budget

By JOAN DYER-ZINNER
Belleville City Editor

A 1992 budget, which keeps pace with the rising level of services, has been adopted by the Van Buren Township Board.

In presenting the budget to the board, Treasurer Helen Foster noted that difficult choices had to be made to meet the needs of the community within the existing economy.

"The economy in the state of Michigan has had a strong influence on the budget. State share revenues are traditionally 35 to 40 percent of general fund revenues. With the severe budget constraints in Lansing this year, our pro-rata share of these revenues will not increase by the 4.5 percent that they have grown, but have been approved by the legislature at only 2 percent. Our population growth has benefited us in that formula also, which helps alleviate the impact of that cut," Foster said.

"Revenues which accompany development are also favorable. The coming fiscal year expects to generate permit revenue and new single-family home building, which we have promoted for balance to our development," the treasurer said. "Assessment freezes and various property tax reform proposals will impact 1992 revenue. Of our revenue sources, property tax is only 8 percent. Further, there are no federal sources of revenue for general governmental operations."

Foster noted that, as other agencies provide fewer services and mandated changes arrive from state and federal levels without funding sources, providing funds for needed services becomes a unique challenge.

The proposed 1992 general fund revenues total $4,099,518. The funds are slated to come from the following sources: property, real and personal taxes, $319,371; police and fire assessments, $562,000; registration and fees, $12,000; building, electrical and plumbing permits plus licenses, $239,500; state shared revenue, $1,461,100; service revenues, $362,850; fines and costs, $163,000; miscellaneous including interest earned on deposit and administrative fees, $556,400; transfers, $423,297, including $350,000 from the landfill fund.

Proposed expenditures for

The coming fiscal year expects to generate permit revenue and new single-family home building, which we have promoted for balance to our development.

Museum doors open for weekday visitors

By JOAN DYER-ZINNER
Belleville City Editor

A step into the past is as close as Quirk school for Belleville area residents.

Appropriately sharing quarters with the September Days Senior Center, the Belleville Area Museum relies on the SDSC members to provide volunteer aid and tour information to visitors. Members of the BAM Board of Directors also volunteer their services to operate the facility.

The BAM, located in the former Quirk Elementary School, contains scaled-down replicas of 11 historic turn-of-the-century buildings from Belleville, Sumpter Township and Van Buren Township:

- Wabash Depot, which was built in the early 1800s. The first train came through Belleville in 1881. After a fire in the early 1960s, the depot was razed. The "Belleville" sign from the east end of the building was saved, and is currently displayed on the replica of the depot.

- Van Buren Township Hall and Grange was built in 1875 and has served through the years as a library, police station, jail and office building. It now houses the offices of The Enterprise, Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce and Adventure Travel. The second floor was paid for by the Grange Society and used as a meeting hall.

- Denton Methodist Church was built in 1869 on two lots purchased for $100. The Methodist Society was organized in 1840, and the first church built in 1850.

- Dressmaker shop is typical of the combination shop and residence of the era. In 1881, there were two dressmakers and a milliner in the area.

- Pullen Furniture Store was operated by J.C. Pullen, who also operated an undertaking establishment on Main Street near High Street prior to 1913.

- Beebe's General Store, owned by Everett Beebe, was located in Sumpter Township and is an example of the national style of architecture.

- Sumpter School, a one-room schoolhouse, featured separate doors for boys and girls to enter and exit separately.

- Dr. Forbes' office and home, built in the early 1850s by John Forbes was located at 368 Liberty St. For many years his son, Dr. Elias Forbes, lived and practiced medicine there.

- Arlington Hotel, built prior to 1890, was renamed the Mandt Hotel in 1901 when purchased by William Mandt. Before it burned in 1981, it served as a meat market, shoe store and carpet shop. Apartments were located on the second floor.

- Campbell Drug Store, located in the old Music Hall, was operated by Sam Campbell. The drug store was on the left side of the building and A.E. Smith, owner of The Enterprise, occupied the right.

- Bank of Belleville was organized in 1899 and by 1910 a new brick building was constructed at Main and Fourth. In 1915, the bank was renamed Peoples State Bank, and later was purchased by the National Bank of Detroit and moved to the present location.

Changing exhibits of artifacts are featured at the museum and outdoor exhibits are being developed.

The BAM is open weekdays from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., and admission is free. Information is available regarding special events and activities by calling September Days Senior Center, 699-8918.

Slow Drains?

You'll never have a slow running, or clogged drain again!

The secret? Clean drains don't run slow. The "slows", or periodic clogs, are signals that a thick layer of "gook" is choking coats the entire length of your pipe from sink to sewer, or septic.

Conventional drain openers cannot remove this build up. Even a small tunnel through the waste lets them flow through the pipe, leaving the gook behind!

Now, with just a few minutes each month, you can easily clean out your pipes like new... and KEEP them clean with Plumb Clean. It clings, and penetrates deep into the gook. No other product has the Plumb Clean formula. That is what allows it to liquefy even years of build up. Plumb Clean will clean the entire length of your pipes. It will make your drains run like new, when used as directed. This penetrating action is so revolutionary, Plumb Clean is money-back guaranteed! Don't be confused. Plumb Clean is the brand with the guarantee right on the label.

Save Money. A 1 lb. jar of Plumb Clean holds up to 41 drain treatments. It costs only about 35¢ per treatment.

Independent laboratory studies show Plumb Clean more effectively breaks down organic waste than all other products tested. So, if your drains have the "slows", get safe, guaranteed Plumb Clean today!

Seminars sponsored for public

A series of informational programs, sponsored by the Belleville Central Business Community, will be staged at the Victory Station community center through May, 1992.

The series was launched in October by Gary Sampson of Adventure Travel who presented tips on planning a perfect vacation. The second program in the series was a gun safety presentation by Anthony Talaga of Smith's Sporting Goods on Main Street.

Programs, which will be presented by local business and professional people, are:

- Jan. 8, 1992, Substance Abuse as a Family Disease, Carol Ehrenberg, Eastwood Clinic.
- Feb. 5, 1992, Tax Tips - Personal and Business, Gerald McKelvey of McKelvey & Associates.
- March 4, 1992, Ask Your Vet, Dr. Gerald Graf, Belleville Animal Hospital.
- April 1, 1992, Funeral Planning, David Brown of David Brown Funeral Home.
- May 6, 1992, Water Safety, Van Buren Township Public Safety Director Mark Perkins.

2 named as winners

Two local residents are winners in the Musical Variety Series drawing hosted by the Friends of the Canton Public Library.

Paul Regets of Belleville and Elias Villaverde were selected as winners, according to Marcia Barker, coordinator of the volunteer group.

The musical series began Oct. 25 with a performance by the Anderson Ensemble, a string group which performed classical and popular classic selections.

Other performances in the music series will be the Dennis Tini Jazz Quartet on Feb. 14, 1992, and the folk music group, Skylark on May 1.

Solid waste program adopted by Belleville council

Recycling and composting have been designated as official programs to reduce waste in Belleville.

Two options of the Wayne County Solid Waste Management Plan were adopted by the Belleville City Council. The first option calls for recycling/composting for curbside collection, and the second option utilizes existing landfills for the remainder of the waste materials.

"The choices are good for Belleville, and we appreciate the information gathered by the Conference of Western Wayne on this. It was good of the CWW to provide this information," said Belleville Mayor Glenn Silvenis.

A report to the city council, noted that the composting program is under way and has been successful. The city hopes to begin a mandatory curbside recycling program in January, 1992, along with a drop-off recycling center, the report said.

Adoption of the recycling/composting option for the 3,270 residents will divert substantial amounts of solid waste currently being landfilled. This diversion will result in disposal cost savings generated by the avoidance of tipping fees and the sale of recyclables and the compost end product.

According to the feasibility study, the recycling/compost-

Recycling, reducing, reusing is daily job

By JOAN DYER-ZINNER
Belleville City Editor

Preserving and protecting the environment can be an everyday project when tri-community residents follow simple procedures to reduce, reuse and recycle.

The focus of a Conference of Western Wayne project has been to inform students and adults about projects to reduce waste, reuse materials and recycle products.

A household hazardous waste collection day was conducted for Belleville and Van Buren Township residents, and many hazardous substances - batteries, used motor oil, insecticides and household cleaners - were collected. Another collection day has not been planned due to the high cost of hazardous waste disposal. However, individuals can reduce or eliminate the hazardous products in their homes through the use of alternate, non-hazardous products.

Often, potentially hazardous products can be eliminated from homes by the use of alternative products, many of which are common household items. It has been estimated that the average family discards approximately 100 pounds of hazardous products annually, according to environmental analysts.

Many household products contain chemicals that can be dangerous in the event of accidental poisoning or fire. When they are discarded, they can contribute to the contamination of the soil, water and air. The pollution risks can be reduced by using alternatives or, if none are available, buying only what you will use in the immediate future, environmentalists advise.

Environmentalists suggest alternatives for some common hazardous household material. For example, substitute a mixture of bar soap and water or used dishwater instead of using insecticides on household plants, they said.

Individuals can remove the food supply from pests and use live traps, in place of arsenic-based pest products. They also suggest the use of cedar, rosemary or eucalyptus oils on cotton pet collars and Brewers yeast added to pet food, rather than the use of flea collars and sprays for household pets. Cedar chips also can be used in place of mothballs.

In addition, homemakers can use borax and lemon juice as an abrasive cleaner, borax instead of bleach or disinfectant, baking powder on the carpet as a freshener and baking soda and water to clean the oven.

A booklet of environmental tips is available to township residents at the Van Buren Township Hall, 46425 Tyler Road.

Each Saturday, between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m., newspapers, glass, plastics, tin and aluminum wastes are collected at the recycling center behind the Van Buren Township Hall.

Wednesdays and Fridays. Cost: 35-month plus a $25 non-refundable registration fee. The church is located at 42690 Cherry Hill Road, Canton Township. Phone 981-0286 between 9 a.m.-3 p.m. for more information.

More Detroit suburban travelers

The SPRING Newspapers' circulation more than doubles the daily suburban circulation of either The Detroit News or Free Press.

In fact, SPRING's suburban circulation is greater than the two metro dailies' combined.

And that's not all.

According to the 1991 Belden study, SPRING reaches more of the affluent suburban shoppers who have more—and spend more.

► 146,100 more suburban vacationers than the daily News (55,400 more than the Free Press).

► 91,800 more suburban purchasers of airline tickets than The News (9,700 more than the Free Press).

► 80,700 (and 7,900) more suburban business travelers.

More suburban boat owners, travel agent customers. . .

Simply put, one order in SPRING delivers more.

Shouldn't you be advertising in SPRING more?

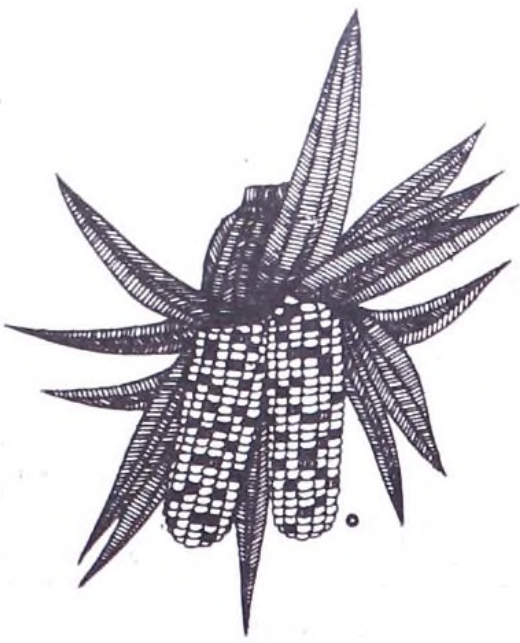

To get all the facts, call your SPRING representative.

The SPRING Newspapers

SPRING is the network of 50 Detroit suburban newspapers published by the Adams, Associated, Heritage, HomeTown, and Observer & Eccentric groups. Call (313) 445-8200.

ALL AROUND TOWN

Marine Pvt. William C. Wiegner, son of William and Cheryl Wiegner of Moccasin in Westland, recently completed recruit training.

All recruits participate in an active physical conditioning program and gain proficiency in a variety of military skills including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close-order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline are emphasized throughout the cycle.

Wiegner is a 1990 graduate of John Glenn High School.

Western Michigan University recently awarded degrees to 669 individuals who had successfully completed the prescribed courses of study. Among those awarded degrees was Michael Stanley Jaszcz of Brookfield Street in Canton Township. He earned a bachelors degree in management. Chontelle Rhodes of Kitch Street in Inkster earned a bachelor of science degree in criminal justice from the university.

Pvt. Brian S. Kimble has completed the electronic warfare signal intelligence noncommunications interceptor course at Fort Devan, Ayer, Mass.

During the course, students received instruction in basic electronic principles, operation and maintenance of noncommunications intercept equipment and intercept operations.

Kimble is the son of Betty Kimble of Geddes Road in Canton Township. He is a 1989 graduate of John Glenn High School.

High school students who are U.S. citizens and who are interested in applying for $1,000 college scholarships should request applications by Dec. 14, 1991 from Educational Communications Scholarship Foundation, 721 N. McKinley Road, P.O. Box 5002, Lake Forest, Ill. 60045-5002. To receive an application, students should send a note stating their name, address, city, state, zip code, approximate grade-point average and year of graduation.

All requests for applications will be fulfilled on or about Jan. 15, 1992. One hundred winners will be selected on the basis of academic performance, involvement in extra-curricular activities and need for financial aid.

Air Force Staff Sgt. Deborah A. Lewis, an aeromedical supervisor, has arrived for duty at Incirlik Air Base, Turkey.

Lewis is the daughter of Betty DuBose of Alabama and Eddie Lewis of Douglas Court in Inkster.

Donald R. Bachand, son of Susan Willett of Westland, was recently notified that he has successfully completed the examination for admittance to the bar association of Michigan. Bachand is a graduate of the University of Michigan and Wayne State College of Law. He was formerly the controller at The Associated Newspapers and is presently employed with the firm of Garratt and Evans Attorneys at Law in Birmingham.

John D. Craven, Jr. has enlisted in the Air Force Delayed Enlistment Program. Craven, a 1992 graduate of John Glenn High School, is scheduled for enlistment in the regular Air Force June 22, 1992.

Air Force Airman First Class John D. Walker has been named airman of the month. Selection was based on the individuals exemplary duty performance, job knowledge, leadership qualities, significant self-improvement and other accomplishments.

Walker is a machinist at Mountain Home Air Force Base, Idaho. He is the son of David M. and Marylynn Walker of Middlebelt Road in New Boston.

Sgt. Jeffrey F. Smith has been decorated with the Army Commendation Medal. The medal is awarded to those individuals who demonstrate outstanding achievement or meritorious service in the performance of their duties on behalf of the Army.

Smith is a tank systems mechanic/foreman at Reese Barracks, Augsburg, Germany. He is the son of Charles J. and Joyce L. Smith of Oakville Waltz Road Belleville. His wife, Dana, is the daughter of David and Perlina Roberson of Sumpter Road in Belleville.

He is a 1980 graduate of Milan High School.

Keith E. Vukovich, the son of Milo and Judy Vukovich of Belleville, has enlisted in the Air Force Delayed Enlistment Program.

Vukovich, a 1991 graduate of Belleville High School, is scheduled for enlistment in the Regular Air Force on April 30, 1992.

Marine Lance Cpl. Christopher M. Franklin, the son of Karen M. Fritch of Knollway in Romulus, recently reported for duty with Headquarters and Service Company, 3rd Marine Expeditionary Force, Okinawa, Japan. He joined the Marine Corps in January, 1991.

Navy Lt. Stephen T. McInerney, whose wife, Heidi, is the daughter of James D. Hoeschele of Montfort, Canton Township, recently completed the Officer Indoctrination School.

A graduate of Ferris State University, and a graduate of the University of Michigan School of Dentistry, McInerney joined the Navy in April 1990.

Shoppers flock to flea market

By MARGO DEWEY
ANP Staff Writer

They've been popular for decades. Men, women and children enjoy the various items both old and new they offer, and many even consider them a great way to spend a weekend afternoon.

Flea markets cannot be considered a thing of the past because in the 1990s, they are becoming more of a business venture for the future.

And one enterprising local businessman has taken advantage of this ever-present bargain hunting urge with the opening of the Wayne Antique and Flea Market in the for Budget Rent A Car building at 33640 Michigan Ave. in Wayne.

After only a few weeks of business, hundreds of western Wayne County residents have flocked to the shop looking for their favorite collectibles, according to Thomas Moody, main cashier at the flea market.

"Most customers seem to like the collectibles which include furniture and jewelry," Moody said. "Other popular items are the name brand potteries and children's plates from the 1940s and 1950s."

The flea market has several rows of spectacular new and old antiques. Some are to place on a shelf and admire while other items can be used on a day-to-day basis, according to Moody.

There are about 85 booths at the Flea Market, but once owner Frank Carmisino completes the renovation of the building, there will be 100 booths.

"We have about 60 people working here," Carmisino said. "There really is something here for everyone. We have rock memorabilia, records, baseball cards, old magazines, anything you could think of."

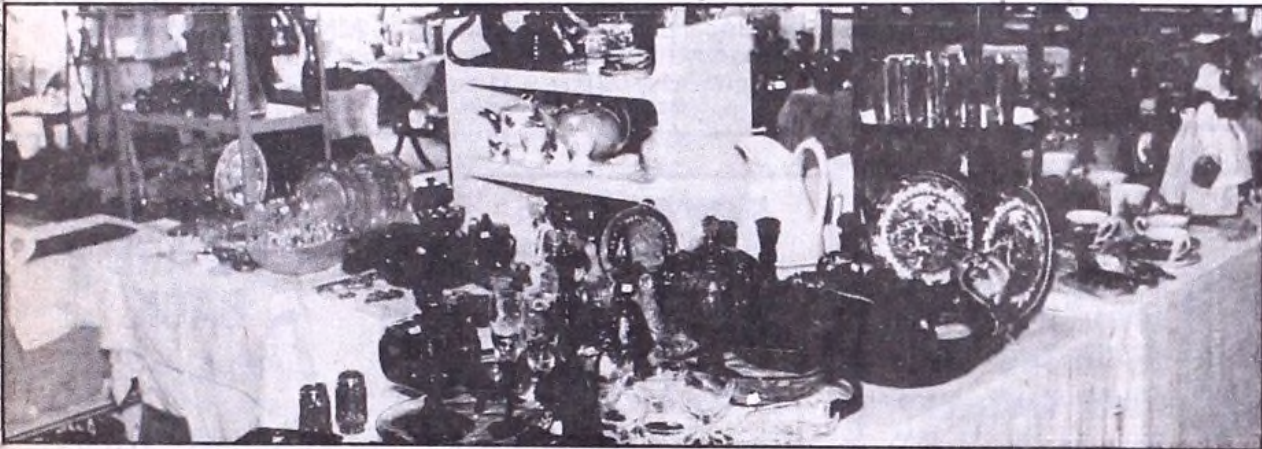

In about three to four weeks, Carmisino is going to establish a car auction. He is hoping to have about 250 vehicles, including new and used cars, available for auction.

Recently Wayne councilmembers approved the site plan for the Flea Market. City officials allowed Carmisino to open his establishment before the site plan approval in an effort to allow him to generate some business.

The Wayne Antique and Flea Market is only open 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Opinion

A fine effort

Today, there are some very exhausted, but happy, newly elected officials in many of our local communities.

There are an equal number of political hopefuls who may feel somewhat disillusioned with the electoral system and discouraged that the time, effort and money poured into their unsuccessful bids for office were not more effective.

We would suggest that each of these men and women, with remarkably few exceptions, deserves an expression of gratitude from those residents who truly care about the management of the municipality in which they live. Without these people seeking office, offering challenges to the other candidates, making suggestions for changes and reflecting the attitudes and wishes of the electorate, how would the system ever begin to work?

In the political arena, challenge is necessary to ensure that apathy and complacency doesn't overwhelm incumbents. Challenge is the fuel of change and of improvement and without a field of candidates willing to step forward and take on the mantle of public service, and with it the invariable slings and arrows of public scrutiny, our very system of government would fail.

Today, all political hopefuls face the suspicions and criticism of a society barraged with reports of the corrupt and less-than-moral conduct of national officeholders. People want a change and are sometimes unaware that change is not always for the best.

Many incumbents in this election who proved themselves fine public servants and excellent representatives of the people faced this environment of hostility and skepticism during their campaigns. It is only with time that voters may learn that change for the sake of change is often unwise.

But to each of the candidates who worked so long and so diligently, expending energy, time and money to secure the right to represent voters in the management of their communities, we offer our heartfelt gratitude. Your very efforts provided a more worthwhile public service than many offer in a lifetime.

A tribute to our good judgment

At first, we attempted to ignore them.

But as more and more people called the distribution of flyers throughout Wayne accusing The Associated Newspapers, Inc. and our owner and president David J. Willett of collusion in wrongdoing with the city of Wayne to our attention, ignoring these immature, devious and foul-natured attempts to smear our reputation became more difficult.

Our first call was, of course, to our corporate legal counsel, who advised us that anyone could have arbitrarily typed the name of the group which appeared on the bottom of the flyer as responsible for the inflammatory, libelous and scurrilous content. And the phone threat from one of the campaign managers announcing his intent to distribute such flyers discrediting us was not basis enough for a lawsuit.

But, after we considered the situation, it became clear that we ought, perhaps, to be somewhat vindicated in knowing that these people, ignorant as they apparently are, still place such importance on the political endorsements of this newspaper.

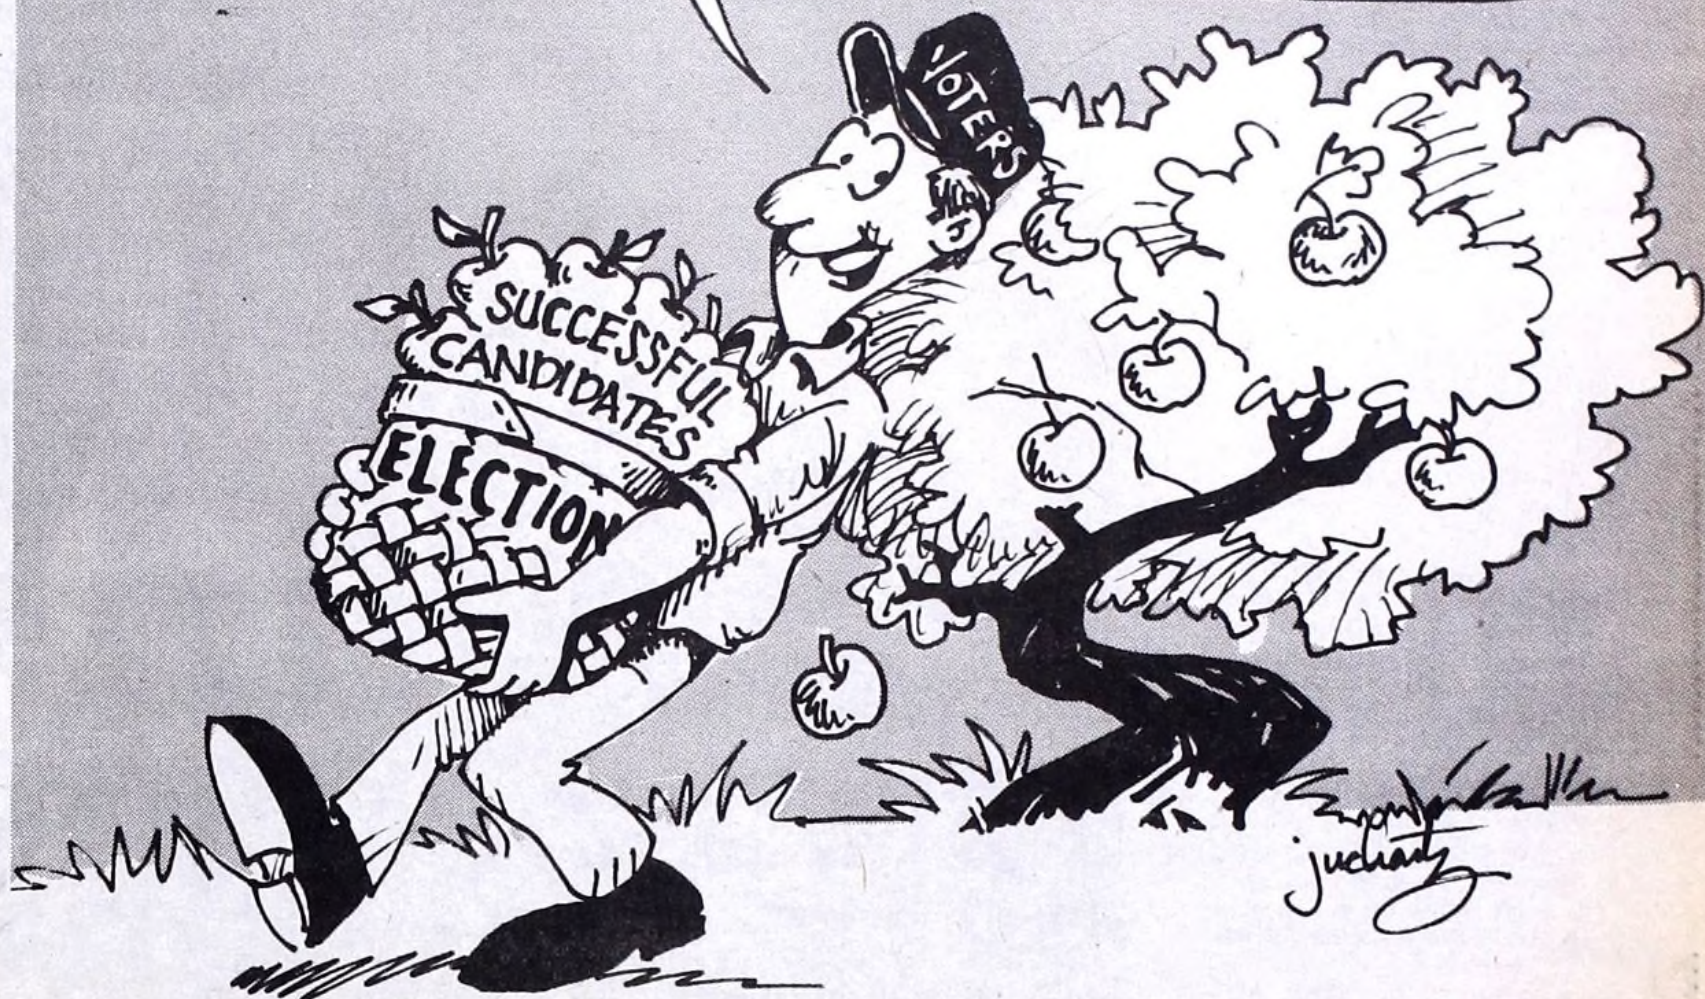

The flyers, alleging impropriety in a loan from the city of Wayne to Associated Newspapers some years ago, and detailing an investigation of check kiting charges which was summarily dropped as without basis by the FBI, were prompted by the failure of one candidate to secure our sanction and endorsement for office.

And, in retrospect, after watching this despicable and foul tactic and this group of vulgar, adolescent amateurs at work, it is obvious that our judgment in this case was flawless.

We now understand, albeit painfully, the degree of incredulity and dismay veteran politicians must experience when attacks of such a coarse and base personal nature are made against them.

We wonder what reaction these people would have if others attacked them in this manner although we are well aware that there are few individuals capable of such despicable and heinous tactics.

THERE WERE SO MANY GOOD ONES,
I HAD TO LEAVE SOME FOR NEXT TIME!

Resident praises reporter

To the editor: I have always respected and admired Tom Mooradian's weekly commentary (The other side of the meridian) in The Inkster Ledger Star. Truly, his Oct. 3, 1991 article tops everything he has previously written.

Edward Bivens, an Inkster mayoral candidate, sent shock waves throughout the NAACP audience when he openly and proudly declared the late Orville Hubbard as his longtime role model. Most Inkster citizens remember the late Mr. Hubbard as the repugnant and despised mayor of Dearborn who dared, in his words, Inkster's pickaninnies (black children) to cross east of Guiley Road. But even then, Hubbard was a hero to Mr. Bivens. As a matter of fact, during his last term in office, Mr. Bivens was married by Hubbard. No Inkster pastor was acceptable.

I emphatically agree with Mr. Mooradian. Russia is wrestling with communism; South Africa is working toward the relief of apartheid; minimal improvements have been realized throughout the world in our ongoing struggle for civil rights and Haiti is making a tempestuous bid for survival.

LETTERS

Everywhere else, people are trying to improve their respective situations. Why then, would Mr. Bivens again want to expose Inkster citizens to any degree of Hubbardism? Thank you, Mr. Mooradian.

Candidate confuses voter

To the editor:

Maybe your paper can clear some things up for me. I have just finished watching the second of two cable shows showing our council candidates in action. Candidate Glenn Anderson spoke on several topics and contradicted himself throughout the interviews.

In his opening statement, he said if he was elected to the city council he will do whatever he can to limit uncontrolled growth. In the same paragraph, though, he said he had a vision for Westland that will be conducive to a good business climate, and later said he favored expansion of the Westland Mall. Well, which is it?

On the question of tax abatements, he said he opposed them but will continue to support them. At least on that topic he admitted it sounded like a contradiction, and he wasn't kidding.

In his closing, Mr. Anderson said he will concentrate his efforts on developing an ethics policy for city officials. Maybe his first rule should be to stop the double talk. He also said he will concentrate his efforts on increasing manpower at the police and fire departments, but his campaign literature said he would decrease expenditures. Was he planning on hiring these people for free?

He may think working as a volunteer for the Westland beauty pageant, the YMCA and the figure skaters booster club gives the experience you need to control the multi-million dollar budget of our state's 10th largest city, but I don't think so. Do you?

The Allen Junior High School Article III team is looking forward to playing a very meaningful roll in the Westwood Community School district 1991-92 school year. Focus: Learning.

We count on you in our plans and efforts in educating our children. We realize our job is helping children of the Westwood Community School District. Together we can accomplish this goal: What we believe, we can achieve.

Shopping cart causes amnesia

To the editor: On Saturday, Oct. 5, I saw this shopping cart which cost $125, at Beechnut and Shuman. It was from Farmer Jack. I went to Farmer Jack and reported it the same day. The lady there said, "Thank you. We'll have it picked up."

Today, Oct. 7, that same shopping cart is still there. Did she forget or did amnesia set in? I suffer from amnesia also. Good bye Farmer Jack.

VIEWPOINTS: Are local politicians more ethical than those elected to national office?

Paul
Giordano
Westland

I'd say so. There isn't as much distance between them and the people. They have to answer to local people.

Jim
Dixon
Wayne

I really don't know enough about it to give you an answer. I'm just not familiar with the issue.

Lois
Sparks
Inkster

No. Politicians at whatever level do about the same thing. I think it is a matter of opportunity and personality.

Cheryl
Pedler
Westland

No. I think people at the national level are more ethical.

Mickey
Thomas
Canton

I would have to say that local politicians are the ones I have first-hand knowledge of...so yes.

Al
Hindman
Romulus

Yes, they are. They work at a closer level with people. It's harder for local citizens to get to national officeholders.

Playoff fever: Robichaud, Salem qualify for State

Bulldogs put title on line

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Robichaud, the defending Class B state football champ, will put its crown on the block Saturday and Detroit Country Day will have the first shot at grabbing the gem.

Country Day will host the 3:30 p.m. regional playoff at its facility located on 13-Mile and Lahser Road in the city of Birmingham.

Robichaud and the Yellow-jackets will enter the battle with identical 8-1 records, and veteran Bulldog coach Bob Yauck knows his opponents have an excellent tradition of fielding some of the finest athletes and teams in the state.

"We will have our hands full," said Yauck after his club dropped a 20-7 decision to cross-town rival, Crestwood, to close out the regular season. "They (DCC) can hurt you with their speed and their defense is probably one of the best we will see."

Has the loss to Crestwood taken a psychological toll on the players?

"I don't think so," Yauck replied. "We're all disappointed with the loss, but that's sports for you. I think this will help strengthen the team. We'll try to iron out the kinks in practice."

Robichaud failed to stop Crestwood all-state candidate, running back Chuck Reynolds, who turned in a spectacular performance against the champs. Reynolds rushed for 210-yards in 33 attempts and scored all three of the Charger touchdowns. He has brought his total output to 21 TDs for the season and has piled up a phenomenal 1,678 yards in 190 carries.

"He is an outstanding athlete," Yauck said. "I wish I had him in our lineup."

Rocks clash with Adrian

By KEVIN LITWIN
ANP Staff Writer

A natural rivalry turned into a natural disaster for Plymouth Canton Friday night when Plymouth Salem stormed through the cold, sloppy conditions to best the Chiefs, 43-6.

The win for Salem avenged a 34-0 loss to Canton in 1990.

"Our entire team was instrumental in the victory," said Salem coach Tom Moshimer. "Our backs Leon Hister and Dan Burke were great, our offensive line was great, and our defense was outstanding. Canton didn't get a first down until the middle of the third quarter."

The win clinched a berth for Salem (7-2) in the Michigan High School Playoffs. The Rocks will begin their quest for the 1991 Class AA Championship when they battle Adrian (7-2) in a regional contest at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 8 at Adrian High School.

Salem manhandled Canton from the outset, rolling to a 22-0 lead by halftime. With nine minutes remaining in the third quarter, the Rocks had increased the lead to 36-0, so Moshimer pulled his starters.

But things continued to deteriorate for Canton as the second-stringers from Salem thundered down the field for a touchdown with 6:34 remaining in the third, giving Salem a 43-0 lead.

"The game was good for us because we got to rest our starters for the Adrian game," Moshimer said. "And we got all the reserves in there to give them some valuable game experience."

The Salem offense was led by Hister's 172 yards rushing, which included four touchdown runs of 3, 9, 1 and 1 yard. Middle linebacker Agron Ujkaj led a mean Rock defense by recovering four fumbles, two of which led to Salem scores.

Anne Gray

State crown eludes Belleville runner

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

The coveted Class A state cross country crown continued to elude Belleville High runner Anne Gray, who finished second at the state finals on Saturday at the Terra Verde Golf Course near Grand Rapids.

Running over a treacherous 5,000-meter course that was inundated by rains on Friday and frozen in spots by the freezing temperatures on Saturday,

Gray managed to battle Royal Oak Dondero outstanding runner, Elke Thompson, to the finish.

Thompson bolted to the front of the pack at the start of the race with Gray and Wyandotte's Becky Caldwell keeping close tabs on the frontrunner. Caldwell was second after the first mile when Gray decided to make her move.

The Belleville junior overcame Caldwell, a runner who had beaten her in the league meet, and remained in the shadows of Thompson. She was not able to grab the lead away from the Dondero runner.

"Anne's a tough little lady," said Belleville coach Sam Vicchy, "and she ran an excellent race. Thompson just had a little more at the end in this race."

Thompson led Gray across the finish line, the state champ finishing in 20:04. Gray cashed in a 20:27 for a silver medal and her third consecutive all-state nomination. Caldwell finished third in 20:35.

The area also produced the 11th best runner at state in Plymouth Canton's Lana Borobitsch, who toured the course in 20:58, while Plymouth Salem runner, Stacy Moore, finished 14th in 21:02.

In the team championship, Traverse City emerged as the Class A state champ, beating Dearborn Edsel Ford for the honor by 11 points. Traverse City garnered 110 points, while the T-Birds had 121. Brighton was third, with 141.

Belleville, which was the only local team to be represented in the Class A team finals, finished 17th at state.

Belleville coach Dave Medley, a former all-state cross country runner, said that the inclement weather created a very tough challenge for all of the runners.

"I felt that our kids ran tough," said Medley. "The competition was great and the teams that beat us were excellent. I would like to be there again next year."

Romulus field goal nips Tigers

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Jon Devereaux's 21-yard field goal and a stubborn Romulus defense lifted the Eagles to a 3-0 victory Friday night over Belleville in the 1991 season finale for both schools.

The victory was the sixth in nine starts for Romulus, the best record in more than a dozen years for the Eagles. Romulus was also one of two teams that "just missed" qualifying for the Class A state playoffs in Region 3.

Teams that qualified for the playoffs include Woodhaven (8-1), Ypsilanti (7-2), North Farmington (6-3) and Detroit Chadsey (6-3).

"Yes, I am disappointed that we didn't qualify," Henry said, "because there are teams in it that have the same record we have."

"But 'no' I am not disappointed with this team. They came back from a frustrating 0-9 season a year ago and barely missed making the playoffs. Most of these players are juniors, so they will be back a year from now. And I am looking forward to 1992."

The offense, mired in the rain and stymied by winds that reached 25 to 30-miles per hour at times, gave way to a duel between defenses. Belleville refused to cave in even after Devereaux's successful field goal which came after a nine-play 45-yard drive stalled deep in Tiger territory.

"We were facing a fourth-and-five situation," explained Henry, "and decided to go for the field goal. Jon came through for us. He did an excellent job as he has all season long."

Belleville racked up only five first downs and 167 yards. The Tigers had their problems getting past linebackers Charles Dudonis and Eric Love, who were in on 22 tackles between them.

Romulus quarterback Bob Bergeron unleashed 14 aeriels and five were completed. Rob Thompson made four catches for 48 of the Eagles 169 yards.

Belleville finished the 1991 campaign with a 2-7 record.

For the first time in Belleville High cross country history, the Tigers qualified a team for the state championship. The team, made up of Dan Durham (first row, from left), Gary Knowlton, Darren Hamilton, Craig Hogg (second row), Mike Ryan and Jason Kidwell traveled to Terra Verde Golf Course near Grand Rapids on Saturday to compete in the Class A state finals. Running under the worst weather conditions possible on a 5,000 course made perilous by frozen terrain and winds up to 35-miles per hour, Coach Dave Medley's Tigers managed to finish 17th among the top teams in Michigan. ## Glenn blanks Wayne

By TERRY LYNCH
ANP Staff Writer

Chilling winter winds blew across the gridiron where arch rivals Wayne Memorial awaited Westland John Glenn Friday night.

And when they departed and the last hurrahs echoed across the field, the winds carried a message that Glenn again ruled the inter-city rivalry thanks to a hard-fought, 7-0, victory.

However, Coach Chuck Howton and his valiant Zebras gave the playoff-hopeful Glenn a fight to the end. The Rockets came away with the victory, however, they were to later learn that wasn't enough to make the regional playoff.

Coach Chuck Gordon's team finished with an enviable 7-2 record, while Wayne fell to 4-5 on the season.

The game was a fitting climax to an exciting season. The suspense remained to the final whistle.

Glenn set up the only game points by blocking a punt midway through the second quarter. After picking up the loose ball at the 35, the Rockets benefited from a face-mask penalty and set up at the Zebra 16 yard line. On a third and goal at the Wayne 1-yard line, senior quarterback Terry Hewer sneaked in on a keeper.

Then the Rockets made it a 7-0 game when kicker Chris Bandy booted the extra point. That proved to be the final point for both teams for the 1991 campaign.

Now, the trick for the Rockets was to make the slim margin stand up. They somehow managed to do so despite the efforts of the spirited Zebras.

Wayne had its opportunities, though.

Near the end of the first half, Glenn fumbled at its own 33-yard line. For four plays, Wayne couldn't find a way to crack the Rocket defense, and the visitors took a 7-0 lead into the locker room.

To open the second half, Glenn found itself inside its own 20. This time it was the Wayne defense that stood firm, forcing the Rockets to punt. But the Zebras failed to capitalize on the field position when they came up short on a fourth and 4-yard play.

In the swim Monroe coasts past Wayne

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

With the dual meet season behind them and the conference championships ahead, Wayne Memorial swimmers will be putting in overtime in their pool to prepare for the final phase of the 1991 campaign.

Coach Randy Ferguson and the Zebras finished the Wolverine 'A' Conference year with an even .500 note after Monroe claimed an easy win over the local club. Now they must get ready for the league title races.

Undefeated Trenton and once-defeated Monroe are the top picks to win the conference team title when the eight-members of the league gather at Wyandotte Roosevelt High School next week.

The championships will be staged beginning Nov. 13 with the preliminaries and conclude Nov. 15 with the finals.

"We don't have any meets until the league meet," said Ferguson, "so that will give us some extra time to get ready. We are steadily improving our times and I believe we will get our share of medals."

Monroe swept 11 of the 12 events against the Zebras, who averted the shutout thanks to the performance of Dana Walls in the 100-yard breaststroke. Walls posted the winning time of 1:16.8.

In the meantime, Belleville surfaced on the short end of a 56-37 decision with Trenton in their final conference meet of the season.

Trenton will enter the conference championships with an untarnished 7-0 league record.

"We continue to improve our times," said Belleville coach Frank Vicchy, "and that's what is important at this stage."

Belleville's Jennifer Snure, who was a part of the winning 200-yard medley relay, stashed the 100-yard freestyle event in the Tiger victory column. She touched in at 1:00.15.

Snure combined with Kristin Curtis, Lindsey Holt and Andrea Held to win the medley relay in 2:08.70.

Belleville finished the league year with a 3-4 record.

Earlier, Adrian turned back Belleville 53-39 in a non-conference meet. Snure again provided the Tigers with two of their four first places. She also participated on the winning 400-yard freestyle relay team. Snure posted a career best in winning the 200-yard freestyle (2:09.63) and came back to win the gruelling 500-yard freestyle in 5:56.73.

Curtis, who captured a first in the 50-yard freestyle (27.43), teamed with Snure, Vivian Overholt and Held to win the 200-yard freestyle in record-setting time. The foursome churned a 1:53.43 to nix the old record of 1:53.98.

In the 400-yard freestyle relay, the Tigers had the winning combination with Held, Michelle McGoldrick, Curtis and Snure who had a 4:19.97 for their efforts.

Tiger swim club seeks members

The Tiger Swim Club is seeking young swimmers for the 1991-1992 season.

Belleville High varsity swim Coach Frank Vicchy said that the club, which has produced some outstanding swimmers in the past, will compete against neighboring club teams if there is enough local interest.

"We are looking for young talent that we can develop in this club," Vicchy said. "We will practice at the high school pool."

Prospective swimmers are urged to contact Vicchy at 697-8985. They may also register at the high school pool.

The Tigers are also looking for qualified coaches to help in the program. If you believe you can do the job, contact Vicchy at the high school.

Tap, click, squeak

Ford simplifies service with new diagnostic system

What's the definition of a click, a tap, a chirp or a squeak? These terms may not seem technical, but they are vital in ensuring that customers and service technicians are speaking the same language when describing occasional problems in the highly complex cars and trucks of today.

Ford has developed the "Customer Diagnostic Evaluation" process to make it easier for customers to describe symptoms and operating conditions to Ford and Lincoln-Mercury dealership technicians.

"With customers providing specific comments to the technicians, it gives us a better chance to make vehicle repairs right the first time," said Ken Dwiggin, general sales and service manager, Ford Parts and Service Division.

Customers can now simply check boxes on the evaluation form to answer a few questions that concentrate on four difficult-to-fix areas: heating and air conditioning; noise and vibration; automatic transmission and engine driveability.

In addition, the Customer Diagnostic Evaluation gives definitions of vehicle sounds. For example, a click is a "light sound, like a ball point pen being clicked," while tap is a "light hammering sound like tapping a pencil on a table."

"This can convey a lot of information to a technician," Dwiggin said. "Like the conductor of an orchestra, a service technician has an ear for minor annoyances that might diminish a vehicle's performance."

A new computerized information and diagnostic system will help dealer service technicians "fix it right the first time," according to Ford Motor Co.

The company began installing its new Service Bay Diagnostic System (SBDS) in Ford and Lincoln-Mercury dealerships throughout the country in the spring of 1991. SBDS is expected to increase customer satisfaction by improving dealership technicians' ability to make fast, accurate vehicle diagnosis and service. It is also expected to reduce technician repair time and improve service shop productivity.

"There is no substitute for a knowledgeable technician when it comes to performing repairs and satisfying customers," said Thomas J. Wagner, Ford vice president and general manager of the Ford Parts and Service Division.

"SBDS is a powerful tool designed to help technicians keep pace with the continuing growth of sophisticated vehicle systems. And that's what SBDS is all about—increasing customer satisfaction by enhancing the technician's ability to fix it right the first time."

Wagner added that the training being given to technicians on SBDS is the most ambitious training effort the division has ever undertaken. He said about 1,500 dealerships would have SBDS units installed by year end.

Ford and Lincoln-Mercury dealers are now using the new Service Bay Diagnostic System (SBDS), a computerized information and diagnostic system designed to enhance a technician's ability to "fix it right the first time." SBDS features a Portable Vehicle Analyzer (insert photo) which allows the dealer technician to electronically record engine data during a test-drive to identify hard-to-find problems.

The Ford system is designed to address two of the most frustrating service department occurrences—intermittent problems and hard-to-find problems. These are problems in the base engine, electronic engine controls, ignition and fuel systems that are difficult to pinpoint with conventional tools and methods.

While SBDS has a variety of uses for dealership service departments, it will be most effective when connected to a two-way Data Communication Link (DCL), presently available in certain Ford, Lincoln and Mercury vehicles. With this hook-up, vehicles can send their readings to SBDS, which can interpret the data and assist the technician in a guided diagnosis of the problem. The system can be adapted to work on all Ford-built cars and trucks from 1986 to the present.

The guided diagnostics feature is accessed when the technician enters a symptom code that describes the problem and the vehicle identification number. Next, with the help of the technician, SBDS will run through a series of tests aimed at isolating the cause of the problem. When the problem is detected, the technician can access the information to assist with the repair process. Once the repair is made, the technican can use SBDS to retest the vehicle to make sure that the problem has been corrected.

"Our customers are our greatest asset," Wagner said. "SBDS will be a tremendous tool for helping us provide the quality service our Ford and Lincoln-Mercury owners deserve. We intend to provide them with not only quality cars, but also quality care for those cars."

SONOMA BEATS IMPORTS.

More double walls of steel than Toyota. Our 1992 Sonoma is built with double walls of steel in its hood, doors, front fenders, cargo box sides and tailgate for added strength. Toyota pickups only have double walls of steel in the bed. More power than Mazda. Sonoma's standard 2.5 Liter engine pumps out more horsepower and more torque than Mazda B2000. More security than Nissan. Sonoma gives you the added security of rear-wheel anti-lock brakes standard,* unlike 4x2 Nissan Hardbody.
